About Me

Hello, I'm Ram Farid Front-end developer I have +1.5 years experience in Front-End development

I can build a fully website with all features that make Customer familiar with it, I can build with Pure HTML, CSS and JavaScript This is a good choice; but React library is a very good one.

My react knowledge isn't a few, I know all fundamentals and advanced topics from Error boundaries, HOC, Lazy loading advanced hooks (useReducer, useMemo, ...etc)

I hope to be at the best of your judgment

My projects is little bit but you will like my work, just do interview with me you can see my React CV from the side section or from here
